

Debating Tournament - FAIR TRADE

Group Stage (10.50-11.30 am)

Thur, 8th Dec

B1 – B2

Debate 2) If developed countries scrapped their protectionist agricultural policies the rationale for the existence of FT would disappear.

Fri, 9th Dec

A1 – A2

Debate 1) As Poland has no colonial past, we are not responsible for the fate of the inhabitants of the Global South

Mon, 12th Dec

A1 – A3

Debate 3) There is no point trying to convince Polish consumers to FT products.

Tues, 13th Dec

B1 – B3

Debate 4) FT has a significant impact on resolving the issue of economic migration from the Global South

Wed, 14th Dec

A2 – A3

Debate 5) The EU should oblige its member states to giving preferential treatment to FT products in public orders.

Thur, 15th Dec

B2 – B3

Debate 6) The EU should lift trade tariffs on FT products from all over the world

Semifinals (3.00-5.00 pm)

Fri, 16th Dec

no1 - A? – no2 B?

Debate 7) The World Trade Organisation should enforce a comprehensive introduction of FT standards in all its member states.

Fri, 16th Dec

no1 B? – no2 A?

Debate 8) There is no chance that the operations of FT organisations can contribute to a long-term economic growth in producer countries.

THE FINAL

Tue, 20th Dec

???? _____ – ???? _____

Debate 9) The right to retail distribution of FT products should depend on participating in the costs of certification.